At Dataweave, I am part of a strong Inside Sales Team. We are a team of 3 but with conditions apply we were able to deliver even in the toughest of situations. Primary responsibility was to invite hand-raisers to evaluate or take a demo. My ideal thought process within this format was to enable/nurture prospects and set appointments with the Account Management team. This was to enable a team sitting on nurtured leads to activate them as customers with a free 4 weeks' trail. The next step was to run the designed outbound engine more efficiently.

Senior Inside Sales Manager at Stride AI, Bengaluru

September 2019 — October 2020

- Sales & Marketing Strategy
- Budget Planning & Hiring
- Vendor Management/Evaluation
- Revenue Growth Opportunity
- Sales Process Development/ Improvement
- Team Management

At Stride AI I was the 1st hire on Sales and hence had more responsibilities. Beginning from the actual content (Sales, Product, Website, etc.) I had to take charge of a role that had begun only after I joined. Identifying the ICP to the right kind of tools for sales and marketing teams. Evaluating every Sales or Marketing vendor initiative. I made sure that Stride AI is equipped to converse with prospects outside their regular network by integrating the website with a chat-bot to schedule an email journey of every customer/Prospect. This was challenging but kept me going because not only was I getting where Stride AI is today but was exploring the new me. Now we have a full-fledged seat ready for a team of folks to start operating sales and this is truly a 1-year course (efforts). This also gives room for me to be the actual sales guy to have initiated sales and Marketing at Stride AI.

Regional Sales Manager at 7EDGE, Bengaluru

August 2018 — March 2022

I'd gotten this opportunity to be the 1st Inside Sales Manager for 7EDGE. I wrote the complete script of how to have an organized Inside Sales Team. I made sure every stage is meant and needed in an outbound process. Beginning from having the operational guide-campaign scripts and email to running a scheduled sequence with the right kind of email was created under my guidance. I built a team of 6 which includes Inside Sales & Marketing.

The current process has been yielding results and has been replicated for other solutions internally. We have created opportunities for the AM's worth 50 lakhs. This was the 1st time they were able to bring new opportunities apart from inbound/references.
